Be an EAGLE Everyday!

Dear Parents and Students,

Congratulations on being a part of this unique musical group! Jazz is a truly a unique American art form that brings together many aspects of our culture. Throughout the year, our ensemble will perform music that is demanding, yet very rewarding. The purpose of this handbook is to inform you of the expectations of our group. Please review this information carefully, fill out the handbook agreement form with your student and return it to Mr. Hartman by Friday, September 4, 2009.

Expectations:

1. Be on time
2. Be prepared
3. Give 110% in effort every minute of class
4. Be responsible

If the Expectations are not met:

1. Reminder
2. Warning
3. Call Home
4. Office Referral

Class Materials

The following equipment will be needed this year:

1. Instrument and all related equipment
2. Folder with music - provided in class
3. Pencils
4. Tuner/metronome - Purchasing information on Handbook Agreement Form
5. All white button-down long sleeve shirt, black pants, black shoes, black socks, and a tie (gentlemen only)
6. A jazz CD (in a case) labeled with your name, the CD title, and personnel for our CD rotation (due in class on Sept. 4)
