

Mrs. Kathryn Knueven co-directs the concert bands and jazz ensembles for Liberty Junior School – 7th and 8th grades. Mrs. Knueven started teaching at Lakota Local Schools in the Fall of 2001 and has been at Liberty Junior School since the Fall of 2003. She received a Bachelor of Music degree from University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music and she received a Master of Business Administration degree from University of Cincinnati. In addition to her teaching responsibilities, Mrs. Knueven is an active member of Ohio Music Education Association, Music Educators National Conference, Jazz Education Network and Jazz Education Connection of Ohio.

Prior to coming to Lakota, Mrs. Knueven taught middle school band at Fairfield City Schools; elementary, junior high and high school band at Mt. Healthy City Schools and Covington Exempted Village Schools; and junior high and high school band at Covington Independent Schools. Mrs. Knueven served as District Music Department Coordinator, Grades 5 – 8, while teaching in the Fairfield City Schools and District Music Department Chair while teaching in the Mt. Healthy City Schools. In addition to teaching, Mrs. Knueven has worked in private industry.

She resides in Liberty Township with her husband, Tom, also a band director, and their children, Rob, a sophomore at University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music, and Marie, a junior at Lakota East High School. Mrs. Knueven and her family are active members of St. John Church in West Chester.